

Tea Time and Literature (First - Fourth Grade)

Each week will consist of a tea and snack time while reading and discussing classic literature. The first trimester will be devoted to the works of Beatrix Potter, and the remaining trimesters will consist of various works by some favorite authors. If time permits each week, there will also be a coloring time where the students can color sheets relating to the story during the discussion of the story. Some weeks have shorter works than others, so there may be time for some poetry by various authors or readings from the McGuffey Readers.
